

ACADEMIC STANDARDS & PROGRESS

- Mid-Term Warning (p. 1)
- Academic Warning (p. 1)
- Academic Probation (p. 1)
- Academic Suspension (p. 1)

(College Policy: 6Hx28: 4-7: Academic Progress, Course Attendance and Grades, and Withdrawals (<https://valenciacollege.edu/about/general-counsel/policy/documents/volume4/4-07-academic-progress-course-attendance-and-grades-and-withdrawals.pdf>))

Academic Standards

To maintain satisfactory academic progress at Valencia, you must achieve a minimum term grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 each term. Successful completion of a course is defined as a grade of A, B, C, D, S+, or S-, except for those specific courses which require a grade of C or better for successful completion.

Mid-Term Warning

If you are making a grade lower than C at or about mid-term, you may be notified by your professor. If you receive a “below C notice,” you should immediately meet with the professor. Not receiving a “below C notice” at mid-term does not guarantee that you will pass the course.

Academic Warning

If your term GPA falls below 2.0, you will be placed on academic warning. To be removed from academic warning at the end of the next term, you must achieve a minimum term and cumulative overall GPA of 2.0. When you are placed on academic warning, it is strongly recommended that you talk with a student success coach or counselor to discuss your education plan and Valencia College’s academic support services before your next registration.

Students enrolled in Valencia’s Bachelor’s degree programs should contact their Student Success Coach for assistance and to ensure they are not in jeopardy of being dismissed from the program.

Academic Probation

If your term GPA falls below 2.0 for two successive terms, you will be placed on academic probation. You will receive an MyVC e-mail informing you about your academic probation status.

Under this status you will need to complete the Probation Pass (<https://myvc.valenciacollege.edu/pages/academic-standing-notification-probation/>), which can be found in MyVC. There will be a link to an Educational Success website on the right hand side in the Registration box. After completing the pass you will need to connect with a Student Success Coach to discuss your education plan and Valencia’s academic support services. In addition, you must obtain an student success coach or counselor’s approval of your proposed course schedule before registering for the next term. The number of credit hours you are able to take may be limited in order to help ensure your success.

To be removed from academic probation, you must achieve a minimum term and cumulative overall GPA of 2.0.

If you want to take classes as a transient student at another institution while under academic probation you must follow the steps above and receive approval from a Student Success Coach or Counselor prior to submitting a Transient Student Form. Transient Student Forms received without prior Student Success Coach or Counselor approval will be denied.

Academic Suspension

If your term GPA falls below 2.00 for two terms, while on Probation, you will be placed on Academic Suspension.

Under Academic Suspension you:

- Are officially prohibited from enrolling in credit courses at Valencia for one term (Fall, Spring or Summer).
- May only register for continuing education courses at Valencia.
- Must complete the Suspension Readmission Application and follow all required steps in the readmission process by the Suspension Readmission Deadline (established by Valencia and listed in the Important Dates and Deadlines (<https://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/importantdatesdeadlines/>) calendar). You can find the Suspension Readmission Application (<https://myvc.valenciacollege.edu/pages/academic-standing-notification-suspension/>) in MyVC. There will be a link to an Educational Success website on the right hand side in the Registration box.
- Are required to review the Suspension tutorial and complete a series of questions through an online course. Once you have completed these assignments, you are required to meet with your assigned student success coach or counselor face-to-face to discuss your re-admission status. You are to complete ALL portions of this process by the established deadline in order to be eligible to attend classes in the following term.
- Must achieve a minimum 2.0 GPA for each term. If you do not achieve a term GPA of 2.0 while on probation following a suspension, or you fail to comply with the readmission requirements above, you again will be placed on academic suspension. Students who have multiple suspensions may be prohibited for longer than one term. Withdrawing from a course(s) may adversely affect your academic status. You are advised to meet with an student success coach or counselor prior to withdrawal from a course.
- Will return to Good Academic Standing when your cumulative overall GPA and your term GPA are both at least 2.0.