

SOP: SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

---

Courses	Credit(s)	Contact	Lab
SOP 2332. DRUGS AND ADDICTION. DRUGS AND ADDICTION Prerequisite: PSY 2012 This course examines the psychological, social, and biological issues involved with substance abuse. Addiction affects not only the drug user, but their family and friends as well. We explore problems associated with abusing substances, and their impact on both the individual and society.	3	3	0
SOP 2772. HUMAN SEXUALITY. HUMAN SEXUALITY Prerequisite: PSY 2012 or SYG 2000 Study of sexuality with emphasis on subjects such as identity and behavior, characteristics of sexual beings and meaning of sexuality. Includes study of sexual health, sexual decision-making and strategies for dealing with conception, sexually transmitted diseases and sexual coercion and exploitation.	3	3	0
SOP 2930. SELECTED TOPICS IN SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY. SELECTED TOPICS IN SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY For students interested in exploring special topics in social psychology through research, discussion and observation. May include laboratory and/or field work as part of the class. May be repeated for credit, but grade forgiveness cannot be applied.	1-3	variable	